

Friend Request: Using Social Networking to Recruit and Engage Volunteers

HandsOn
WEST CENTRAL OHIO

Presented by Nicolette Winner, HandsOn West Central Ohio Director

Effectively recruit a new generation of volunteers and build organizational awareness by using Facebook, YouTube, Twitter and other social networking tools. Learn the pros and cons of recruiting through each site, as well as an overview of how to get started. Learn how to maintain privacy controls. View samples from organizations using these resources. Training will be held on Monday, September 13th, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at Council on Rural Services located at 116 East Third Street in Greenville.

Space is limited and registration is required! Register by September 1st to receive our early bird registration rate of $20. Registrations received after September 1st will cost $30. Retired and Senior Volunteer Program members serving in Darke, Logan, Miami or Shelby Counties may register by September 1st free of charge.
