Supervision: Maximizing the Volunteer Experience

Presented by Nicolette Winner, HandsOn West Central Ohio Director

Join us for a session that will empower you to effectively supervise volunteers, whether or not you have previously supervised volunteers/paid staff before. Participants will learn how to define and communicate expectations, deal with difficult volunteers, develop volunteer work plans and recognize volunteers. This session is ideal for both volunteer program managers and other staff members who may supervise volunteers/paid staff. Training will be held on Wednesday, August 11th, from 12 to 4 p.m. at A Learning Place in Piqua. Learn more about or find directions to A Learning Place by visiting www.alearningplace.org.

Space is limited and registration is required! Register by August 2nd to receive our early bird registration rate of $25. Registrations received after August 2nd will cost $30. Retired and Senior Volunteer Program members serving in Darke, Logan, Miami or Shelby Counties may register by August 2nd free of charge.

Please register me to attend Supervision: Maximizing the Volunteer Experience on August 11, 2010. My payment of $25 is included.
